

W.A.T.C.H. Retreat

March 9 – 11,
2018. 2018

W.A.T.C.H. stands for "We Are The Church"-a retreat program that focuses on God, Self and Neighbor. People, not buildings, make the Church. Each one of us is unique and important. Each of us has gifts and talents that are important to the "Church" and to each other. There is strength in community and this weekend provides people with the opportunity to get to know and support others.

W.A.T.C.H. consists of a series of interesting talks by lay people and clergy focusing on renewal. W.A.T.C.H. offers a stress free atmosphere with prayer, reflection, fun-filled times, great food, entertainment, and opportunities for making new friends.

W.A.T.C.H. begins on Friday evening at 7 p.m., March 9th, and ends on Sunday afternoon, March 11th, at approximately 3 p.m. This is not an overnight retreat; you will go back to your homes at night. We will begin the W.A.T.C.H. at Carroll Catholic School on Friday evening.

W.A.T.C.H. weekend welcomes all men and women 18 years and older.
