† Such a great power exits in reflecting on the Passion of Jesus Christ and realizing that He experienced real pain, real despair, and true human emotions. Our God has such profound love for us that He would seek to walk among us and take part in the full human experience. Our God knows our pain. Our God is not one who rests in a faraway place unconnected to His creation. He is the one born in a manger and then crucified by those He would seek to save. He is then and now Emmanuel: God with us!.

<When I face trials in this life, am I truly aware of a God who loves me and understands what I am going through?

† It is interesting that the solemnity of St. Joseph falls during the Lenten season. We too often only reflect on his role during Advent and Christmas. Mary is at the crucifixion, but we assume Joseph has passed away by this time. Yet, it is his faithfulness to God, like that of Our Lady, which makes the crucifixion and resurrection possible. He is a model for us as we week to do God's will in all things. We never know for certain what effect our positive response to the call of God will have on the world around us.

<Am I following God's will or my will more in my life?
† Jesus was not of this world but He entered into it and redeemed it by His cross and resurrection. We who are of this world now have a home prepared for us if we choose to follow Jesus and become His disciple. It is not always easy to see the promise of heaven when the weight of the world bears down on us. If we place our trust in Jesus and His promises, then not only will we be able to bear the trials of this life, we will one day find ourselves in paradise with the one who made our journey there possible.
<What does the promise of heaven mean to me as I live in this world?

† Before the events of that first Holy Week, Jesus retreated from the public to spend those final hours with His disciples. All of us need to retreat to community at times before big decisions and events in our lives. Consider sharing the many liturgies of this coming week with your family—your church family. Together we celebrate the light that overcame all darkness and the resurrection that conquered death. Lean on one another. As Easter arrives, may we stand boldly and proclaim this Good News to the world.

<Do I take the time to retreat and allow the love and support of others to sustain me?

NEXT SUNDAY (March 25) IS FOOD PANTRY SUNDAY! Please bring non-perishable food items for the food pantry: For Holy Family there is a shopping cart located to the right in the main entrance, for St. Mary's a box is provided in the gathering area, St. Patrick's and St. Thomas Aquinas items may be left in the main entrance. Items that are always needed include: **canned fruit, canned vegetables, spaghetti & egg noodles, spaghetti sauce, saltine crackers, cereal, Jell-O, tuna, soups, navy or pinto beans, pancake mix & syrup, macaroni & cheese and toilet paper. This last month 73 families were served with 133 bags of groceries with expenditures totaling $144.90. Thank you for your support.
