When will I have given enough—of my income, of my time, of my talents? Today's Gospel suggests that only total stewardship will do: "When you have done all you have been commanded to do, say 'We are useless servants. We have done no more than our duty.'" See Luke 17:10

FEAST OF OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

(October 7)

The following is a true story revealing the power of the Rosary.

Father Eusebius Nierembergh relates, that there lived in the city of Aragona, Sicily, a girl named Alexandra. Being both noble and very beautiful, Alexandra was greatly loved by two young men.

Driven by jealousy, these young men fought one day and killed each other. Their enraged relatives, in return, killed the poor young girl as the cause of so much trouble. They cut off her head and threw her remains into a well.

A few days later, Saint Dominic of Guzman was passing through that place and inspired by Our Lord, approached the well and said: "Alexandra, come forth." Immediately the head of the deceased came forth, perched on the edge of the well, and asked the saint to hear her confession.

Perhaps accustomed to bizarre phenomena, Saint Dominic heard its confession and also gave it communion, in the presence of a great concourse of curious persons who had assembled to witness the miracle.

Then the saint asked her to tell why she had received such a grace. Alexandra answered that when she was beheaded, she was in a state of mortal sin and would have been damned to hell. But on account of the rosary which she was in the habit of reciting, Most Holy Mary appeared and preserved her soul from unending torments.

So it happened that for two days the head of Alexandra retained life and when summoned was set upon the edge of the well, in the presence of all, and then the soul went to purgatory.

Fifteen days later, Alexandra's soul appeared to Saint Dominic, beautiful and radiant as a star. She then told him that one of the principal sources of relief to the souls in purgatory is the rosary which is recited for them; and that, as soon as they arrive in paradise, they pray for those who apply to them these powerful prayers.

Having said this, Saint Dominic saw that happy soul ascending in triumph to the kingdom of the blessed.

We're All Leaders Some of the Time!

When some people hear the term "leader" they assume the discussion isn't relevant to them. After all, they don't hold a distinguished post in some huge organization. They've never been elected to lead a community or parish organization. At work, at home and in their communities they just try their best to do what needs to be done. If that's you, don't sell yourself short. In the Lead Like Jesus movement, co-founded by best-selling business author Ken Blanchard (The One Minute Manager), we define leadership as "any time anyone tries to influence anyone else." That means all of us are leaders some of the time. It also means that leadership is not a choice—it's inevitable. The only choice for us is whether we are effective or ineffective leaders.

Become the best leader possible at home, at work, in your community and in your parish by learning how to Lead Like Jesus. A Leadership Encounter will be held on Saturday, November 12 at Carroll Catholic School. Registration fee is $30, which includes food for the day and a workbook. Fee is due by October 22; late fee is $35, and must be received by October 29. The encounter will begin at 8:30 am, end at 4:30 pm, and will be followed by the 5 pm Mass.

Peace Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

LORD, MAKE ME an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as
to console;

to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Born in Italy circa 1181, St.

Francis of Assisi was renowned for drinking and partying in his youth.

After fighting in a battle between

Assisi and Perugia, Francis was captured and imprisoned for ransom. He spent nearly a year in prison—awaiting his father's payment—and, according to legend,

began receiving visions from God.

After his release from prison,

Francis heard the voice of Christ,

who told him to repair the Christian Church and live a life of poverty. Consequently, he abandoned his life of luxury and became a devotee of the faith, his reputation spreading all over the Christian world. Later in life, Francis reportedly received a vision that left him with the stigmata of Christ—marks resembling the wounds Jesus Christ suffered when he was crucified—making Francis the first person to receive such holy wounds. He was canonized as a saint on July 16, 1228. Today, St. Francis of Assisi has had a lasting resonance with millions of followers across the globe.

Francis of Assisi died on October 3, 1226, at the age of 44, in Assisi, Italy. Today, Francis has a lasting resonance with millions of followers across the globe. He was canonized as a saint just two years after his death, on July 16, 1228, by his former protector, Pope Gregory IX. Today,
St. Francis of Assisi is the patron saint for ecologists—a title honoring his boundless love for animals and nature.
