CARROLL CATHOLIC SCHOOL - 6TH ANNUAL APPEAL

I am pleased to announce our sixth Annual Appeal. Over the past five years, through the great generosity of you and other supporters of Carroll Catholic School, over $225,000 has been raised! We look forward to continuing this success, and have set an even more ambitious goal of $60,000 for this year's appeal.

Your sustaining support allows the school to continue to improve. For our students, this means enhanced curriculum, expanded STEM education, and continued access to up-to-date technology. For the school itself, still standing proudly after sixty-two years, this means new carpeting in classrooms and hallways, new furniture in the classrooms and addressing the necessary but often costly repairs and updates.

As I have the past five years, I am again asking for your support to meet our $60,000 goal. Please prayerfully consider what level of financial support you may offer the school, and know absolutely that whatever the amount of your gift, it is truly beneficial and always greatly appreciated. Thank you for your support of the students and mission of Carroll Catholic School and of Catholic education in Logan County!

In Gratitude,
David Welch, Principal

The RCIA process is moving into Lent and the celebrations of three scrutinies. A scrutiny is one of the rites of the RCIA that involves self-searching and repentance. The purpose of the scrutinies is to strengthen the Elect, Chad Smith, to overcome temptations and to be strong in choosing to live the Gospel values with integrity. There are three scrutinies that take place after the readings and homily at the Liturgy. We will celebrate the scrutinies at Holy Family Church on the second, third, and fourth Sundays of Lent.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK (Adapted from My Catholic Life!)

Feast of the Chair of Saint Peter, Apostle (2/22)

There is a physical object known as "the Chair of St. Peter." It is housed at the Vatican, at the back of St. Peter's basilica (the apse). It is also a symbol of spiritual authority to unite the Church. In order to preserve for posterity this precious relic, Alexander VII (1655-67) enclosed the Cathedra Petri above the apsidal altar of St. Peter's in a gigantic casing of bronze, supported by four Doctors of the Church (two from the West: St. Ambrose and St. Augustine and two from the East: St. Athanasius and St. John Chrysostom).

Pope Benedict called it is a symbol of the special mission of Peter and his Successors to tend Christ's flock, keeping it united in faith and in charity [Angelus, Feb. 19, 2012]. The first reading (1 Peter 5:1-4) for today reminds us that the leaders of God's people are spiritual shepherds carrying on Christ's church and the Psalm (Psalm 23:1-6) reinforces the shepherding theme. In the Gospel (Matthew 16:13-19), Jesus declares Peter the rock on which he will build his church. Today's feast celebrates not only that chair as a precious relic, it also celebrates all that this chair represents. This feast was formally celebrated in Rome as early as the fourth century, but honor for the supremacy of Saint Peter and his successors was celebrated from the moment Jesus entrusted Peter with his mission.

In the Gospel of Matthew 16:13-20, the exchange between Jesus and His disciples occurs which is the basis of today's feast and our belief in the unique and universal authority of Saint Peter and his successors. Jesus asked the disciples, "who do you say that I am?" Simon responded, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." With that profession of faith, Jesus changed Simon's name to Peter, saying to him, "And I tell you, you are Peter (Petros), and on this rock (petra) I will build my church." The name "Peter" in Greek is Petros, meaning a single movable stone. Petra, in Greek means a solid rock formation that is fixed, immovable, and enduring.

Jesus transformed Peter from a single stone into a solid, fixed, and immovable foundation of rock on which the Church would be built and endure until the end of time. Jesus told Peter that He would give him the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven and that whatever he bound and loosed on earth would be bound and loosed in Heaven. He became the first bishop of the newly evangelized city of Antioch and then chose to go to Rome, becoming the first bishop of Rome, where he would die a martyr. The death of Saint Peter was not the death of his authority and sacred mission. Saint Linus followed him as the second bishop of Rome, followed by Saint Cletus, Saint Clement, and so forth, until today.

On the pope's authority, Vatican Councils I and II affirmed that when the pope speaks Ex Cathedra, meaning, "From the Chair," he speaks with the authority of Saint Peter who was entrusted with full, supreme, and universal authority to teach and govern. His teaching extends to all matters of faith and morals, and his governance encompasses the entire world. (Lumen Gentium, #22).

LENT WITH THE HALLOW APP

For Lent, we have partnered with Hallow to encourage all parishioners to surrender and trust in the Lord. Hallow is the #1 Catholic app worldwide and includes 1,000 prayer sessions available, and over 10,000 audio-guided sessions in an upgraded premium subscription. Use this QR code to sign up! Keep in mind Pope Francis' theme for Lent 2024: "Through the desert God leads us to freedom" inspired by Exodus 20:1-17.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE PRAYER VIGIL KICKOFF 2/14 9AM DECATUR

The 40 Days for Life prayer vigil Kickoff will be next Wednesday, February 14th at 9:00am in the parking lot at Houran's Florist at 1106 W. Pershing Rd, across the street from Planned Parenthood. Speakers at this kickoff event include: Reverend Michael Friedel, Pastor Rob Goodwin, and Pastor Jameson Wheeler. I hope that you can join us in prayer and worship at this kickoff! Please feel free to sign up for prayer vigil times during these 40 days at www.40daysforlife.com/Decatur.

In preparation for Reconciliation during Lent, consider the words of Pope Francis on December 22, 2014, when he met with the behind-the-scenes Vatican employees. After thanking them for their dedication, he encouraged them to examine areas of their lives. The following are adapted from his remarks.

“Care for your spiritual life, your relationship with God.”

- Am I a Christian who is not nourished by prayer and the sacraments?
- Do I study the Word of God?

“Care for your family life...”

- Do I give my family time, attention, and love?
- Do I care for their daily needs?

“Heal the wounds of the heart with the oil of forgiveness...”

- Have I forgiven others who have hurt me?
- Have I said “I’m sorry” to those whom I have hurt and have I tried to make amends?

“Watch how you speak...”

- Do I need to purify my everyday language from offensive words, vulgarities, and phrases used in the worldly decadence?
- Do I gossip about others or tell false truths?

“Care for your work...”

- Do I work with enthusiasm and passion?
- Am I humble enough to thank the Lord for my accomplishments?
- Do I use my God-given skills and talents in the service of others?

“Avoid envy, lust, hatred, and negative feelings...”

- Are my thoughts and actions destructive toward my relationships, especially with those whom I love?
- Do my thoughts destroy my inner peace?
- Do I say insulting things when it would be better to remain silent?
- Do I surround myself with angry or destructive people?

“Reach out to those who need you... this is how you will be judged.”

- Do I assist the weak, the elderly, the sick?
- Do I stand up for foreigners or for those who are oppressed? Do I feed the hungry and shelter the homeless?

“Let go of...”

- “The bitterness that brings us to revenge”
- “The laziness that leads to existential euthanasia”
- “The finger-pointing that leads to pride”
- “The complaining that leads to despair”

REGULATIONS FOR LENT AND THE EASTER TRIDUUM

Lent is the principal season of penance in the Christian year. Priests, religious and laity are strongly urged to develop and follow a program of voluntary self-denial, attentiveness to prayer, and especially to works of charity and mercy.

† Everyone of 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, February 14, 2024, and all the Fridays of Lent.

† Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday, February 14, 2024 and Good Friday, March 29, 2024. On these two days of fast and abstinence, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.

† To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is a serious matter.

This schedule is subject to change based on the availability of clergy.
