Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart
By St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

I give and consecrate to the Sacred Heart of our Lord Jesus Christ my person and my life, my actions, penances, and sufferings, not wishing to make use of any part of my being for the future except in honoring, loving, and glorifying that Sacred Heart. It is my irrevocable will to be entirely his, and to do everything for his love, renouncing with my whole heart whatever might displease him. I take you then, O most Sacred Heart, as the sole object of my love, as the protector of my life, as the pledge of my salvation, as the remedy of my frailty and inconstancy, as the repairer of all the defects of my life, and as my secure refuge in the hour of death. Be then, O Heart of goodness, my justification before God the Father, and remove far from me the thunderbolts of his just wrath. O Heart of love, I place my whole confidence in you. While I fear all things from my malice and frailty, I hope all things from your goodness. Consume then in me whatever can displease or be opposed to you, and may your pure love be so deeply impressed upon my heart that it may be impossible that I should ever be separated from you or forget you. I implore you, by all your goodness, that my name may be written in you, for in you I wish to place all my happiness and all my glory, living and dying in very bondage to you.

Amen.
